Lakeshore Technical College

WHAT WE DO

LTC GRADUATES IN THE COMMUNITY

You might not realize the many ways LTC graduates touch your life. When you visit the doctor or dentist, require a car repair, or receive IT support, you're likely touched by an LTC graduate. Maybe it's assistance from a police officer or the transport in an ambulance. Or maybe it's the teacher in your childcare center - all likely to be LTC grads.

COLLEGE DEGREES & CAREER CREDENTIALS

LTC focuses on education for local careers, offering more than 70 programs in 13 career areas. Students choose full degree-programs, specific courses to learn specialized skills, or take advantage of dual credit options where both college and high school credit can be earned while still in high school. As a regionally-accredited institution, LTC credits transfer to numerous four-year colleges and universities.

5,587

WORKFORCE TRAINING STUDENTS

WORKFORCE TRAINING

Businesses and other organizations tap LTC's education expertise by contracting with the college to provide customized training at the workplace or on-campus to provide professional development and hands-on training to their workforce. The college also offers seminars for community members to advance a specific career skill.

243

APPRENTICESHIP STUDENTS

APPRENTICESHIP

The Registered Apprenticeship program is a partnership between student, employer and college where the apprentice combines on-the-job training with LTC coursework. Apprentices attend class on work time. LTC offers apprenticeships in eleven different construction and industrial career areas.

883

ADULT BASIC EDUCATION STUDENTS

ADULT BASIC EDUCATION

For community members who did not complete their high school credential, LTC offers a variety of high school equivalency options, such as the General Education Development (GED) credential. The college also offers services for English Language Learners (ELL) and pre-college coursework for those who need to shore up skills prior to entering a degree program.

NOTE: STUDENTS MAY PARTICIPATE IN MORE THAN ONE EDUCATIONAL CATEGORY.

QUALITY EDUCATION

LTC is getting results. From the programs we offer, to experienced faculty teaching in state-of-the-art classrooms and labs; to our affordability and graduates' job placement rates, the country's top analysts are taking notice.
