

Program Number 10-110-1 Associate Degree in Applied Science • Four Terms

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Paralegals work under the supervision of lawyers in a range of tasks—researching the law; investigating; preparing for hearings, trials, and real estate closings; interviewing clients and witnesses; and preparing legal documents and other legal correspondence. Paralegals cannot give legal advice or represent clients in court. If you are detail oriented, organized, strong in communications, and enjoy researching and analyzing facts, you might find a career as a paralegal very rewarding. A degree in Paralegal Studies provides a wide range of career opportunities beyond the law office, including insurance companies, bank and bank trust departments, real estate title insurance and sales, government offices and agencies, the court system, human resources, and corporate legal departments.
