| Policy Statement In keeping with its commitment to provide a safe learning and working environment, discrimination or harassment of any employee, student, non-employee, third party individual, or retaliation for reporting or investigating such behavior will not be tolerated at Lakeshore Technical College. Such conduct is subject to discipline up to and including termination or expulsion. Recognizing Discrimination/Harassment The College prohibits discrimination and harassment, based on age, race, color, religion, disability, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, national origin, ancestry, pregnancy and other legally protected status. Harassment is defined as unwelcome verbal and/or physical conduct that unreasonably interferes with an individual’s work or academic performance, creates a hostile, intimidating or offensive environment or is the basis for an employment or educational decision. Such conduct may be subtle and/or manipulative. Occasional compliments of a socially acceptable nature are not generally considered harassment. Victims and offenders may be managers, supervisors, co-workers, and non-employees such as clients or vendors, and students. Rights and Responsibilities All employees, non-employees, students and third-party individuals have the responsibility to comply with all discrimination and harassment laws. The College and each employee, non-employee, and student have rights, responsibilities, and liabilities associated with inappropriate/illegal conduct. Rights are protected under applicable antidiscrimination laws. Responsibility involves demonstrating appropriate and respectful conduct in the work/education environment. Liabilities for both the College and the individual may include criminal action, civil action, enforcement agency action, and monetary and other penalties. Authority for Enforcement of Policy The Affirmative Action Officer, acting on behalf of the college, has the authority to investigate complaints against its agents, employees, non-employees, students and third-party individuals whether the specific acts complained of were forbidden or even authorized by the college and regardless of whether the college knew or should have known of their occurrence. The Affirmative Action Officer is authorized to render recommendations and take corrective action. | | |
| Reason for Policy Lakeshore Technical College (LTC), through its commitment to Equal Opportunity Education and Affirmative Action, affirmatively provides that all employees and students will have access to employment and education activities, programs, courses and services and work and study in an environment free of discrimination and harassment in accordance with the laws of the United States and the state of Wisconsin. | | |

Definitions

1. Discrimination means a difference in treatment in any employment activity, program, service, or facility on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, gender, national origin, disability, ancestry, age, sexual orientation, pregnancy, marital status, parental status, or other protected status.
2. Retaliation is any kind of action taken against any individual bringing a complaint or assisting in the investigation of a complaint which may adversely affect their employment/education status. Such retaliation is illegal under s.111.322 (2m), Wisconsin Statutes, and will subject the individual(s) to disciplinary action.
3. Harassment means verbal or physical conduct that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual and has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment; has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's performance; or otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment or education opportunities.
4. Sexual Harassment means unwelcome verbal or physical conduct, sexual advances, request for sexual favors, physical conduct, and conduct directed at another person of the same or opposite gender when:
 - a. Quid Pro Quo harassment (Latin term--"this for that") means submission to such harassment is made, either explicitly or implicitly, a term or condition of an individual employment or education status; or submission to or rejection of sexual harassment by an individual is used as a basis for employment or education decisions.
 - b. Hostile Environment harassment (conduct) means it is sufficiently severe or pervasive and has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, abusive, or offensive environment to a "reasonable person."
