

At Johnsonville, we use our business to build our people. If you're passionate about making a difference, we want you to help make our products, our processes, our communities and each other better. Wisconsin-based Johnsonville is the No. 1 national sausage brand enjoyed in 45 countries. Founded in 1945 by the late Ralph F. and Alice Stayer, our company is 2,000 members strong and remains privately owned today.

Johnsonville Youth Apprentices get to participate in a wide variety of experiences as well as interact and learn from members throughout the company. Youth Apprentices at Johnsonville may help re-build machinery, learn about electronics, pneumatics and robotics and learn about manufacturing processes. Apprentices may get to be a part of ensuring that the quality of our product is best in class. Students also get to be part of a team to help produce the best sausage in the world!

Johnsonville hires Youth Apprentices in the following areas:

- Industrial Maintenance
- Micro Lab
- Production
